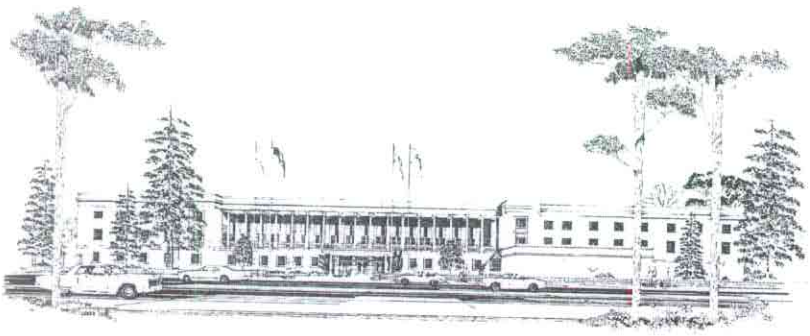
Hal:

Here's the original you sent me plus an extra zerox if you can use it...I have one [redacted] here now...
Eloquent piece...I sure as hell would like to see it get the publishing light of day in a good national journal, perhaps as this next Nov. 22'nd fast approaches...


Don't ever despair all your fine work my friend...there are many that do know you are the genisis scource and time has borne you out...
